

Alpine Hike from Hut to Hut Schadona area

bregenzerwald

Alpine delights for mountain hikers. You'll be hiking from hut to hut over three days through the alpine Schadona region in the Lechquellen Mountains. The daily stages are demanding. Hiking times range between four and six hours each day and there are several ascents to tackle.

Included:

- Two nights at an alpine hut with half board
- Hiking map and route description

From € 130 per person in a dormitory with half board

Bookable:

18 June – 24 September 2022

Information and booking:

T +43 (0)5512 2365

info@bregenzerwald.at www.bregenzerwald.at

Itinerary

Day 1: Mountain-pasture settlements and alps

You'll be passing through idyllic mountain-pasture settlements and alps, up to the summit of the 'Lug' and the Bergkristall Hütte, beautifully situated at 1,240 metres above sea level.

- Au – Lug – Bergkristall Hütte
 - Walking time approx. 5 ½ h
 - Ascent 1034 m, Descent 603 m
 - Overnight stay in the Bergkristall Hütte incl. half board
-

Day 2: Out and about in the Schadona alpine area

Today, you'll be climbing up to the Töbelejoch that presents splendid views of the Rote Wand and the surrounding mountains. The hike then continues to the Biberacher Hütte (1,846 metres), which is located in the middle of the Schadonaalpe area.

- Bergkristall Hütte – Töbelejoch – Biberacher Hütte
 - Walking Time approx. 4 ½ h
 - Ascent 1134 m, Descent 531 m
 - Overnight stay in the Biberacher Hütte incl. half board
-

Day 3: Returning to the valley with an alpine summit experience

An exciting steep alpine path to the mighty Hochkünzelspitze (2,397 metres) awaits. Once the summit has been conquered, you'll be hiking past the Oberschalzbachalpe (alpine pasture) and the Schalzbachvorsäß (mountain-pasture settlement) back down into the valley.

- Biberacher Hütte – Hochkünzelspitze – Schalzbach
 - Walking Time approx. 4 ¾ h
 - Ascent 547 m, Descent 1500 m
-

