

Hike from Hut to Hut Nagelfluhkette Nature Park

bregenzerwald

A summer adventure for nature lovers. This three-day hike from hut to hut takes you through the natural jewel that is the Nagelfluhkette Nature Park. From Hittisau through the Engenloch Gorge to the Lecknertal and the Falkenhütte, on to the Berggasthof Hochhäderich mountain inn and back to Hittisau.

Included:

- Two nights at an alpine hut with half board
- Hiking map and route description

Bookable:

1. Mai – 30. Oktober 2022

From € 127 per person in a dormitory (six to eight beds each) with half board

Information & Booking:

T +43 (0)5512 2365

info@bregenzerwald.at www.bregenzerwald.at

Itinerary

Day 1: Across the Engenlochschlucht gorge to the mountain ridge

The route from Hittisau follows the water hiking trail to the fascinating Engenloch Gorge and into the Lecknertal Valley. The ascending route ends at the mountain ridge and the idyllically located Falken Hütte at 1,439 metres.

- Hittisau – Reute – Falken Hütte
- Walking time approx. 3 ½ h
- Ascent 785 m, Descent 140 m
- Overnight stay in Falken Hütte incl. half board

Day 2: Out and about in the Nagelfluhkette Nature Park

Today, you'll be discovering a few special features at the Nagelfluhkette Nature Park, such as the romantic Lake Hörmoos and the Kojenmoos Nature Reserve. The highlight at the end of the day will be the impressive mountain vista from the Hochhäderich summit.

- Falken Hütte – Berggasthof Hochhäderich
- Walking time approx. 3 ½ h
- Ascent 441 m, Descent 349 m
- Overnight stay in Berggasthof Hochhäderich incl. half board

Day 3: Into the heart of the alpine region and down into the valley

You'll be hiking – past numerous alpine pastures – back down into the valley and into the agricultural village of Hittisau.

- Berggasthof Hochhäderich – Hittisau
- Walking time approx. 2 ½ h
- Ascent 52 m, Descent 783 m

